Also today we would like to unveil FASS Forward, an innovative initiative that will be a digital component of the Festival. Following on the critical and public success of the shows broadcast on the Web in 2020, this year will continue to give a prominent place to films via FASS Forward. Developed under the umbrella of FASS, this new digital event aims to promote short dance films by filmmakers from around the world and demonstrate how the camera can be used creatively to showcase dance. FASS Forward invites all creators who use digital art to make dance shine, to submit their work. All dance styles are welcome.
